Segment and Group Development H1 2025

Outlook

Appendix

Overview H1 2025

The W&W Group recorded a positive first half of 2025 overall. In the Property/Casualty Insurance segment, premium adjustments, portfolio restructuring and the absence of storm damage in the first half of the year led to a significant increase in the technical result. IFRS consolidated net profit improved to EUR 91 million (previous year: - EUR 14 million).

The main portfolio volume expanded compared to the previous year. The portfolio of building loans rose from EUR 28.4 to 29.2 billion. Insurance revenue (technical income) in accordance with IFRS 17 also improved. In the segment Life & Health, sales rose by 1.6% to EUR 630 million (previous year: EUR 620 million), in the Property/Casualty Insurance segment by 6.0% to EUR 1,441 million (previous year: EUR 1,359 million).

New business figures increased in all segments. New business in life insurance, consisting of regular premiums and single premiums, grew by 27.5%. In the Housing segment, new business volume grew by 8.5%. In the Property/Casualty Insurance segment, annual premium income from new and replacement business also rose by 8.9%.

The W&W Group strives to sustainably increase its enterprise value. Various projects and measures were successfully implemented in the first half of 2025: In the Housing business segment, the new Wüstenrot partner portal was introduced to all cooperation partners, and Wüstenrot Bausparkasse AG expanded its partner network in the building savings sector through cooperation agreements with comdirect Bank and Deutsche Bank. As part of the Wüstenrot IT transformation, Wüstenrot Bausparkasse AG is setting an important milestone in Project b@w by consistently pushing ahead with the migration to the new core banking system. In the insurance business segment, the W&W Group offers its customers one of the leading customer portals in the insurance industry, according to the latest KUBUS Portal Study.

W&W is on course for growth in both Housing and Insurance segments

New business volume^{1,2}

Housing

in EUR millions

New business²

in EUR millions

- Total premiums for new life insurance
- Annual contribution to the portfolio (new and replacement business) P&C

- New business volume in the Housing segment, which includes immediate financing, modernization, and equity accumulation, rose significantly compared to the previous year, thanks in particular to the very strong volume of new lending business.
- Premiums from Life insurance business grew by double digits to around EUR 1.8 billion. New business at Property/Casualty, measured in terms of annual contribution, also improved significantly.

Strong consolidated result after loss in previous year

Financial income¹
in EUR millions

Technical result (net)¹
in EUR millions

Net profit¹
in EUR millions

- The decline in financial income is primarily attributable to a negative valuation result (EUR -128 million vs. EUR 377 million in the previous year).
- The underwriting result improved significantly, both in Property/Casualty insurance due to premium and portfolio adjustments and the absence of storm damage, and in the Life & Health insurance segment.

New home loan savings business (gross)²
in EUR millions

Segment net income²
in EUR millions

- New lending business volume increased, further strengthening the market position.
- Gross new home loan savings business amounts was slightly higher than in the previous year, thus outperforming the market.
- The hedging measures taken to manage interest rate risks for economic present value risk management will have a negative impact on the IFRS result for 2025. Overall, however, the interest rate book value increased to EUR 4.9 billion (previous year: 4.3 billion) at the end of the first half of 2025. Due to the different accounting rules, this is also clearly reflected in a positive HGB result. In addition, there are burdens from IT investments and higher risk provisions.

Forecast for the 2025 financial year

With a view to 2025 as a whole, we are maintaining the earnings forecast from the 2024 Annual Report. We are aiming for a consolidated net profit significantly above the previous year.

Depending on interest rate developments in the second half of the year, the Housing segment's earnings could fall significantly below the previous year's level, contrary to our forecast in the 2024 annual report. In new business for construction financing (assumptions), we continue to expect significant growth and the achievement of targets based on developments in the first half of 2025. In terms of net new business in building society savings, we will probably not be able to achieve our ambitious targets, partly due to the declining market trend despite our increasing market share.

Due to the immediate tax investment programme adopted by the Bundesrat (Federal Council) in July 2025 and the resulting burdens from the revaluation of deferred tax assets, we now expect the result in the Life and Health Insurance segment to be significantly below the previous year.

For the result in the Property/Casualty Insurance segment, on the other hand, we expect a significant increase compared to the previous year. In contrast to the previous forecast, we expect Württembergische Versicherung AG's new and replacement business (in terms of annual portfolio premium) to be slightly above the previous year.

W&W AG's net profit for the year in accordance with the German Commercial Code (HGB) is forecast to be slightly above the level of the 2024 financial year. Also the other forecasts for 2025 communicated in the „Outlook“ section of the 2024 Annual Report remain unchanged. The forecast is subject to the further development of the economy, inflation and capital markets as well as the further development of claims, in particular from natural disasters.

Outlook

We were, are and will remain THE provider of relevant pension products from a single source

		ASSESSMENT OF MARKET TRENDS
		2025	Outlook 2030
Home Loan Savings	Financial security and building up equity in times of volatile interest rates combined with a strong desire for home ownership.	+3%
Construction Financing	Increasing demand for energy-efficient refurbishment and modernization.	+11%
Composite	Increasing need for protection, especially from natural hazards. Inflation-related premium increases are understood and accepted by customers.	+6 to +8%
Health	Private health insurance with a better benefits catalog. Growth potential, particularly in supplementary insurance and company health insurance.	+6 to +8%
Life	Falling state pension levels and an ageing society lead to a need for products to close the pension gap. Additional protection against longevity risk.	+0 to +2.5%

Stable, long-term business models with a clear customer benefit
